

NEBF SUMMARY OF GRANTS AWARDED 2012

GRANT TYPE
International grants	$225,000
Local grants	$29,000
Discretionary grants	$9,375
ArtCorps—Year I of three-year grant (includes $10,000 in contract services)	$110,000
Total	$373,375

NEBF INTERNATIONAL GRANTS AWARDED 2012

WEST AFRICA
Cameroon	Bojoke Association of Pineapple and Plantain Farmers —to promote agroforestry practices among local farmers in order to enhance food security and natural resource management in the Bonjongo, Southwest Region, Cameroon	$5,000
	Community Action for Development —continuing support for an education, tree-planting, and organic-gardening project in primary schools in the Muanenguba Mountain forest region of Cameroon	$5,000
	Nature Care Cameroon —in support of reforestation and agroforestry best practices among small-scale farmers in the Kumbo Watershed	$6,500
	Rural Alliance for Youth Development (RAYD) —to assess the potential for combining great ape conservation with livelihood improvements in communities adjacent to the proposed Tofala Hill Wildlife Sanctuary in the Southwest Region of Cameroon	$7,350
	Wildlife Conservation Society —to work with cattle herders to promote the ecological integrity of Mbam and Djerem National Parks	$7,500
Ghana	Ahado Youth Club —in support of promoting environmental leadership among young women in the communities along the River Dayi. This project includes a micro-financing component.	$5,000
	Ghana Wildlife Society —in support of community-based wildfire prevention and resource governance efforts in the Afadjato Community Nature Reserve	$7,000
	Pan African Organization for Research and Protection of Violence on Women and Children (PAORP-VWC) —continuing support for educational programs targeting women charcoal producers and farmers in rural communities in northern Ghana	$8,500
	Rural Integrated Relief Service —a planning grant for strengthening community involvement in the protection of the newly established Kyabobo National Reserve	$2,500
Total		$54,350

GULF OF HONDURAS
Belize	Oceana —in support of efforts to reduce overfishing and destructive fishing methods that threaten the Belize Barrier Reef ecosystem	$5,000
	Sarstoon Temash Institute for Indigenous Management (SATIIM) —to support community forest rangers’ efforts to patrol and document changes in the biodiversity of Sarstoon Temash National Park resulting from oil exploration and subsequent increases in illegal logging and poaching activities. This grant also supports binational, community exchanges among villages along the Belize-Guatemala border.	$8,000
	Toledo Institute for Development and Environment (TIDE) —in support of community-based expansion of no-take zones within the Port Honduras Marine Reserve	$9,000
	Ya’axche Conservation Trust —in support of efforts to address rural poverty and unsustainable farming practices among seven Mayan communities located in and around the Maya Golden Landscape in southern Belize	$9,000
Guatemala	Asociación Maya Probienestar Rural del Área Sarstún (APROSARSTUN) —in support of the “Water and Strengthening Local Development in the Multiple Use Area of the Sarstún River” project, which includes activities to provide clean water and improve living conditions for rural communities along the Belize-Guatemala border	$8,500
	Fundación para el Ecodesarrollo y la Conservación (FUNDAECO) —in support of engaging local fishers and other stakeholders in designation and management of an MPA and no-take zone at King Fish Reef	$9,000
Honduras	EcoLogic for Asociación de Juntas Administradoras de Agua del Sector Sur del Parque Nacional Pico Bonito (AJAASSPIB) —Year I of two-year grant in support of the work of community water councils around Pico Bonito National Park	$8,500
	The Ocean Fund for the Bay Island Conservation Association —in support of community-based reforestation of the Guanaja Mangrove Forests on the Bay Islands of Honduras	$7,450
Total		$64,450
MESOAMERICA— OTHER REGIONS
El Salvador	Asociación para el Desarrollo de Chinameca (ASEDCHI) (formerly, FUNDECHINAMECA) —in support of community-based agroforestry, environmental education, and sustainable livelihood efforts in the shade-coffee forests of Chinameca and the Valle de la Esperanza region, El Salvador	$5,000
Guatemala	Cultural Survival —continuing support for training community volunteers in the creation, production, and broadcast of radio dramas that encourage environmental activism among local Mayan	$9,000
	Fundación para el Desarrollo del Norte (FUNDENOR Aq’ab’al) —continuing support for work with indigenous families in San Cristobal, Verapaz, on recovering the value of native crops and medicinal herbs	$7,500

	Grassroots International —continuing support for the “Women’s Vegetable Garden and Leadership” project, which involves six Mayan communities in Solalá, near Lake Atilán	$7,500
Nicaragua	ELAW for the Center for Justice and Human Rights of the Atlantic Coast of Nicaragua (CEJUDHCAN) —continuing support to work with local Miskito communities to protect fishing grounds from offshore oil development	$5,000
	MADRE, Inc. —in support of the “Food, Water, and Hope in Kisalaya: Preserving the Lifeways and Ecosystems of an Indigenous Village” project, in collaboration with Wangki Tangni, MADRE’s local partner on Nicaragua’s North Atlantic coast	$7,000
	Masangni Professional Cooperative —in support of planting native ojoche trees to strengthen Miskitu communities’ resilience to climate change in the North Atlantic Autonomous Region of Nicaragua	$5,000
	New Haven/León Sister City Project —continuing support for a city-to-city environmental education program in local schools, using UNESCO-supported curriculum	$5,000
	PeaceWorks for Federacion para el Desarrollo Integral entre Campesinos y Campesinas (FEDICAMP) —continuing support for improvement and protection of local water sources in the communities of el Regadio and Rodeo Grande in northern Nicaragua	$6,000
Total		$57,000
SOUTH AMERICA
Bolivia	Asociación Civil Armonía —to support efforts to conserve and restore endemic forest habitat in the indigenous communities of Ch’aqui Potrero and Palcapampa in the Cordillera del Tunari. This work includes introducing fuel-efficient wood stoves and enhanced watershed protection and income-generating activities.	$7,500
	Asociación de Mujeres Unidas para el Desarrollo Sostenible (ASMUDES) —to support Quechua-led agroforestry (using native fruit trees), reforestation, and indigenous resource management of forests in the municipality of San Lucas	$8,000
Ecuador	Fundación para la Conservación de los Andes Tropicales (FCAT) —in support of community-based habitat protection efforts in the Chocó region of Ecuador	$8,000
	Tukuy Cañaris Ayllukanapa Tantanakuy (TUCAYTA) —to strengthen production of alpaca-fiber handicrafts in Cañaris communities in the Andean páramo region of south Ecuador	$8,000
Peru	American Bird Conservancy for Asociación Ecosistemas Andinos (ECOBAN) —in support of community-based reforestation and agroforestry, including shade-coffee production, in Abra Patricia Reserve in northern Peru	$5,000
	Asociación Andina Cusichaca (AAC) —to support efforts to reestablish an integrated water management system in one district in the Sondondo Valley to service a model for similar systems elsewhere in	$7,000

	the region. This work features ancient water management practices and traditional Andean customs and festivities related to water conservation.
	Strategies for International Development (SID) —to support the efforts of women dairy farmers in the municipality of Caracoto, in the Southern Sierra of Peru, reclaim their pastures and water sources while improving productivity	$5,700
Total		$49,200
Grand Total		$225,000

NEBF LOCAL GRANTS AWARDED 2012

LOCAL GRANTEES
The Food Project (Lynn)—continuing support for the Lynn Central Square Farmers’ Market		$5,000
Gloucester Stage (Gloucester)—in support of Youth Acting Workshop for area students		$4,000
RAW Art (Lynn)—continuing support for Door-2-Door, an arts-based employment program for young people		$5,000
Gloucester Adventure (Gloucester)—continuing support for the Working Waterfront Program, which is a historical walking tour of Gloucester targeted to primary school children on Cape Ann. The tour is also presented as a slideshow at Rose Baker Senior Center.		$5,000
Cape Ann Farmers Market (Gloucester)—in support of educational outreach programs for adults and youth		$5,000
Gloucester Fishermen’s Wives Association (Gloucester)—in support of marketing Cape Ann Fresh Catch, a community-based local food program		$5,000
Total		$29,000

NEBF DISCRETIONARY GRANTS AWARDED 2012

DISCRETIONARY GRANTEES
The Actors Studio (Newburyport)—for educational programs on indigenous rights and traditional knowledge related to environmental stewardship		$750
Artsbridge, Inc. (Boston)—in support of its spring fundraiser		$375
Change is Simple (Beverly)—in support of its sustainability enrichment programs for North Shore communities		$1,000
Coastal Trails Coalition (Newburyport)—in support of its outreach to trail communities		$250
Confluence Philanthropy (New York)—in support of this network’s efforts to advance mission-related investing		$500
International Funders for Indigenous Peoples (California)—in support of its work to build capacity and funding partnerships to improve the lives of indigenous peoples		$1,000

Ipswich River Watershed Association (Ipswich)—for general support, in memory of Susan Foster	$1,000
Ipswich River Watershed Association (Ipswich)—in support of a community fundraiser honoring retiring Executive Director Kerry Mackin	$1,000
Massachusetts Darwin Society (Cambridge)—for general support	$500
New England International Donors (Boston)—in support of its work to help members increase their impact in global philanthropy	$500
Sacred Lands Film Project (California)—in support of its work helping indigenous and local communities identify, protect and defend their sacred natural sites	$250
Small Solutions/Big Ideas (Newburyport)—in support of its work to ensure children’s education programs in East Africa	$250
Terralingua (Canada)—in support of its Vitality Index of Traditional Ecological Knowledge	$500
Toledo Institute for Development and Environment (TIDE) (Belize)—for an exchange between Belizean and Guatemalan rangers in nature guiding skills	$500
Windrush Farm (Boxford)—for general support, in memory of Susan Foster	$1,000
Total	$9,375